Alakmalak Technologies was founded in the year 2006, which specializes in web development, website design, ecommerce development, Web Application, Custom Development, flash and SEO. Its a company with sample amount of flexibility. We never let you pay more than you need, or give less attention than you deserve. It is privately funded, do not rely on venture capital and operate on a continuously profitable basis, thus are able to maintain all operations and growth with the current revenues. Our philosophy being "complete customer satisfaction" which makes us a people oriented company, wherein we work person-to-person and not business-to-Business.
