BidFrail is the name of an online marketplace that helps customers to connect with service providers in Delhi. So, if you've no idea about the place and need an expert urgently for fixing pipes or furniture items, you can use our application to find the best and the cheapest. You can even book someone to prior the required date and can even choose the time and price as well. First, you need to post your job requirement, compare the prices, and select the best suitable professional for the service you need. You can also join as a provider and get clients through our application.
