Chandigarh Group of Colleges, Landran, was established in 2001 and aims to provide the best education in Punjab through world-class education and facilities. It is the most popular institute and the first choice of students in the northern region. Being the best engineering college while also being sought after in other disciplines such as technical, management, health, commerce, pharmacy, design, education, and computer application. By providing the latest teaching methodologies by highly qualified faculty from IITs, NITs, and other reputed colleges and universities, CGC assures every student gets the best of both theoretical knowledge and practical exposure. Putting students through 360-degree training and placement drives CGC to ensure that every CGCian is in a position to get the best placement year after year.
