Delhi Public School, the No 1 School in Bathinda offers education from kindergarten through 12th grade with boarding facilities available on campus. We strive to make our students better by providing them with quality education at affordable rates. Our facilities provide world-class academic excellence within an educational framework which stresses holistic development through co-curricular activities like sports, arts & crafts, community service, dance & music. Furthermore, we are also known for our intensive English language courses. This gives students an opportunity to secure their future through higher education without any hindrance.
