HIACC is the manufacturer & service provider for environmental & reliability testing products. Our product's reliability & services have won the trust of more than 100+ customers in a short period. We are among few manufacturers in India, which, in collaboration with its affiliate partners, provides complete range of environmental & mechanical testing equipments. Our services have earned its reputation of being the only company which offers less than 24hr customer complaint response time (CCRT) for all global brands. We provides complex customisation and integration solutions as per various testing standards such as ASTM, IEC, ISO, SAE and others.
