etraky BS is a renowned Brand analytical software that helps sellers sell their products efficiently on several eCommerce platforms. It can enhance the product listing quality of brands and make the products visible to valuable customers. Apart from that, it helps maintain the price of the products on various marketplaces. etraKY consists of a stock availability feature that saves sellers from the situation of Oos (out-of-stock). It can also help the sellers with its agile review management software. For more elaborated information about this enormous software, you can visit www.etraky.com.
