‘What a child eats in infancy heavily influences his health for life.’ Every baby deserves food that is healthy and nutritious. We produce what we believe in and our belief lies in the expectations of a Mother for her children. Happa is dedicated towards making food that’s healthy, tasty, fulfilling and organic for your baby’s development.

Natural, Organic and Pure has remained our objective since the very start of HAPPA. Providing the little ones with the best and the tastiest food product has set HAPPA to shape a better and healthier individuals, families, communities and eventually our Mother Nature.

It took us months of research to develop the perfect baby food after talking to parents, nutritionist and paediatricians. Our products are made in the most hygienic & controlled environment and prepared with love and affection for every child.

The fruits and vegetables we use are sourced from certified organic farms. So, with Happa you feed your child with food that has absolutely no preservatives, additives or pesticides. Nothing makes us happier than seeing little humans smile and enjoy every bit of their food.

Our purees are as pure as your toddler’s heart.
