IMK Architects has designed hospitals for 50 years and is always striving to build the most advanced Next Generation Hospitals. It is our belief that effective hospital architect benefit all participants - patients, doctors, staff, and of course hospital developers. To arrive at design solutions for our healthcare clients, we often derive innovative ideas from our expertise of other sectors like Hospitality, education or commercial.

Today, with over five decades of experience and 150 executed projects across India and overseas, the firm has a host of repeat clients like the Taj Group, JSW Energy, Symbiosis Society, Club Mahindra to name a few.
