INCOM was founded in 2003. In 2012 INCOM successfully developed China's first intelligent recycling machine for the Internet of Things and built an intelligent management platform for recycling sources and flow control. In 2015, joint ventures were set up by INCOM and TOMRA GROUP, a Norway company who is a leader in the field of recycling machines and tools and industrial separation, accounting for about 80% of the global smart recycling machine market share. In 2017, with the investment of Sino-Ocean Group, Sino-Ocean INCOM was founded.
