LawWiser is an online platform that creates videos on corporate and commercial laws, including business laws in India, start-up funding, contract law, etc. It brings the latest update that provides information on laws that impact business and helps create awareness of corporate and commercial laws in India.

LawWiser delivers brief videos on the most recent judicial and regulatory developments. For peer-to-peer learning on complicated legal matters or laws in general, the platform is intended to be a resource for in-house counsels, private attorneys, and law students. It aims to create videos that not only succinctly explain different laws on intellectual property but also provide anecdotes on the latest legal updates covering various acts in terms of trademarks, copyright patents, designs, the geographical indication of goods, and the protection of farmers' rights.

LawWiser frequently raises awareness about a person's rights in the face of any online threats and invites a few well-known legal experts to speak on various subjects in an understandable way to the wider populace. It provides legal content on taxation and brings in-depth conversations and updates about international trade that impact businesses and enhance legal knowledge. It consistently monitors the developments in this fast-paced sector and brings content that decodes and simplifies the legal and regulatory changes, whether national or international, from time to time.
