Makememarketer.com provides 1:1 Instructor-Led practical digital marketing training for job seekers and business owners. Our digital marketing training mission is bridging training and job gaps where people just learn digital theory, not practical marketing. Each Digital Marketing module is led by an instructor. We conduct our class through whiteboard explanations, videos, interactive sessions, live projects, and real-time Q&A during and after the course. We provide end to end digital marketing training program from basic to advanced level along with placement assistance.
