Omega Seals was founded by a professional Engineer in the year 1985. The company began operations with manufacture of Mechanical Seals, then considered, import- substitute in India. Omega Seals soon became a reliable source for complete range of Mechanical Seals and Systems.

Omega Seals, from the beginning, focused on providing the finest quality Mechanical Seals and systems. To achieve and maintain this, Omega Seals has established a well- documented Quality System in accordance with the requirements of ISO 9000 Quality Standards. The Quality System is continuously reviewed and modified to incorporate the latest trends in the Industry and achieve highest level of Customer- satisfaction. By following the above policy, Omega Seals is ISO 9001:2015 Certified.
