Great Rigid Boxes at best prices! Proudly made in Sivakasi

Tamil Nadu's centre for printing and box making experience has always been Sivakasi. At the heart of this enterprising city for perfect packaging options comes RBS - the city's oldest and finest Rigid Box manufacturer supplying thousands of boxes daily across the country and even overseas. Visit our multiple locations today to understand how we excel in this process of making perfect packaging for our partners.

Welcome to Sivakasi's oldest & best Rigid Box company

RBS was founded as a small printing press in the early 1980s in the rural suburb of India to cater to the growing packaging demands of a few fireworks companies. Today we have grown to become one of the leading suppliers of Rigid Boxes to many companies across the country. We believe great things start with humble beginnings. Our Rigid Box manufacturing facility is one of those great dream projects. Visit our press today to learn more. We have 3 sites, 2 manufacturing facilities and have branches in 6 cities across the country.

High Quality skilled box makers

While many printers can make monocartons, few can make excellent rigid boxes.

Packaging will make or break your company. At RBS, we pride ourselves on making exceptional Rigid Boxes from Sivakasi, India's heart of box manufacturing. From the initial concept to the final product, our attention to detail is second to none. In an ever-evolving industry, RBS Rigid Boxes Sivakasi has set the bar for innovation and delivery. Explore our site and see for yourself - we love our work and we're sure you will, too. Join us with our highly skilled teams of Rigid Box manufacturers with machinery from many countries to see how we excel in what we do.

How do you trust a box maker?

If you are located across the country or even overseas from India?

rigid box india

Getting cheated or scammed in the box making industry is easy. That's why we suggest you get samples made from us for a very low fee. We invite all our customers to come and visit us directly at our facilities or branches across the country. We hold separate brands and facilities for different categories of Rigid Boxes. One for Luxury Packaging focused on exports, and another focussed on cheap box manufacturing to cater to the large Indian market for Rigid Boxes from Sivakasi. You can experience both types of manufacturing if you wish to come and see for yourself directly.

Making High Quality Rigid Boxes

How do we make cheap yet high quality boxes?

RBS being located in India's printing metropolis Sivakasi, places at us at a clear competitive advantage than any other city in India or overseas. With over 400 printers in the same town, the cost of raw materials are incredibly cheap. However, the skill of our team has been honed to perfection through years of box making experience. So with the combination of very affordable paper, board and allied printing materials and also the craftsmanship of our team of boxmakers, we are able to offer fantastic packaging at very reasonable prices. Do compare our prices with our competitors to understand the difference it will make for your business.
