SOHOM was founded in the year 2008. We fabricate world-class uPVC door and window systems. We make use of Deceuninck uPVC profile systems. SOHOM Deceuninck uPVC Doors & Windows Systems are manufactured with the European standards multi-chamber profiles that are the actual means for heat, sound, and thermal insulation. SOHOM offers a unique range of colors and surface finishes. Next to its long-lasting properties, our products have a timeless design, resulting in a 50+ year life cycle. SOHOM offers a variety of solutions ranging from the basic sliding window and door systems to the premium Bi-Fold and Lift & Slide systems.
