Swati Ghosh is an award winning Indian artist from Kolkata, specializing in the field of fine arts, working and living both in India and Norway. Having the opportunity to travel around the world and witnessing various cultures and artforms, Swati believes in the art, free of boundaries with unity in diversity.

Swati's work has been exhibited in numerous galleries and museums in various countries worldwide including India, Norway, South Korea, Italy, Switzerland, Vatican Chancellery Palace, New York & Maldives. Her responsible and achievement-driven approach has helped her achieve prestigious awards in painting competitions held worldwide.

Swati strives to cultivate an aesthetic beauty through her artworks that pleases you. Her keen interest in the field of fine arts can be witnessed through her detailed artworks which are real reflections of nature, modern & rural people and their socio-economic backgrounds. Her conventional portraits convey human spirits, classical realism, social and economic context of human beings. Her artworks reflect "sensible" and "intelligible" aspects of human and nature and more precisely her paintings establish nature to human relation too. Swati's seascape and landscape painting awaken a widely different sentiment by the very splendour and contrast of their colours, textures and style.
