Fabriclore is a present-era design-driven company with an aim to promote Indian textile along with contemporary fabrics. Our team directly operates with craftsmen and manufacturers from all over India, to experiment with different printing methods, dyeing processes as well as weaving to make modern and eye-catching designs of fabrics. Within this short span of time, our brand has been recognized as one of the largest retail stores of fabrics in India. Being the first company to provide fabrics online, we provide a great amount of convenience to our consumers and reach our independent designers around the globe to purchase fabrics from small to large quantities.
