IEWholesale was founded with a simple purpose in mind: to bring the greatest general merchandise and specialty products on the market together in one user-friendly, unified location, saving time and money. As the general merchandise and specialty products business has expanded, so have we, expanding our product range, our engagement in the community, and our team to suit the ever-increasing demands of our consumers. We have focused on providing general merchandise and specialty products, and we are one of the fastest-rising wholesalers in Houston, specialized in delivering superior vape hardware & e juice supplies to our customers.

With our expertise in this sector, we have worked across a process of trial and error to determine which items provided the best quality for the price. We stick behind the items we sell and will not carry any that we do not strongly believe in. We also believe that a client should never be regarded as an "experimenter." Working through many various brands with numerous different goods leads to a better grasp of what best fits and how to maintain the hardware running at peak performance.
