Helping you find your perfect self-storage unit without making you broke. At the same time, we allow you to choose the type of insurance coverage because we know how much you are connected with your belongings.

Xtended Space is an online marketplace for hosters and renters near you! Physically, we are positioned in Electronic City Noida Sector 63 but that doesn't limit us to broaden our horizons. As a legit self-storage platform, we connect hosts with nearby renters all across India. Since our inception, we have become the affordable storage partner for renters in the majority of the metro towns.

Through our platform, people have free spaces in their residences, commercial space can put their vacant space to use. As a result, you get the best value for your space in regard to money. We are continuously broadening our storage categories and counting is still on. Plus, we allow you to go for weekly, monthly, quarterly, and even long contracts regarding storage units.

When you whisk at your website, you will find different storage services under the bracket - business inventory, car storage, bike storage, household items, and furniture storage. For high-end storage facilities for commercial goods, and fragile household items, look no further than Xtended Space. With us, you can reserve different storage units near you!
